

OREGON COALITION ON HOUSING AND HOMELESSNESS
BOARD OF DIRECTORS
CODE OF ETHICS

As a member of the OCHH Board of Directors, I pledge to:

Act to support the vision and mission of the organization and not my own personal goals.

Represent the interests of all people who are or will be served by OCHH.

Act in ways that will honor the trust given to me by my fellow Board members and by partnerships of the Coalition.

Maintain confidentiality of Board materials, discussions, and decisions.

Abide by the OCHH Standards of Conduct and protect the Corporation according to State Law.

Assure that I am not personally served or have personal gain or advantage because of my service as a member of the OCHH Board of Directors.

Disclose any conflict of interest in any discussion brought before the Board, I will discuss the conflict and be willing to recuse myself from any further discussion and voting. If I have a conflict of interest that is ongoing and detrimental to the mission of OCHH, I will offer my resignation from the Board of Directors.

Try not to exercise individual authority and will exercise authority only when acting with the Board or as instructed by the Board as a whole.

Always approach Board business with advanced preparation and ready to make decisions with an open mind.

Commit to acting as a team member in the best interest of OCHH.
